

MUSIC THAT INSPIRES AND EDUCATES

Brott Music Education Concerts have been shared with 260,000 students since 1999. Boris Brott leads the National Academy Orchestra as they perform, folk to soundtracks, classical and pop! Join us in one of North America's great concert halls, FirstOntario Concert Hall/Hamilton Place.

CLASSROOM SUPPORT MATERIALS

We provide the information you need to make this a complete and interactive experience for your students. From receiving pre and post-concert lesson plans, information about instruments and music, and biographies of the performers, to participating in musical activities, your students will be engaged and learn before, during and after our performance.

CURRICULUM CONNECTION

The 2019 concerts connect with the new Ontario Language and Social Studies curriculum requirements. All students learn to identify the instruments and sections of the orchestra and much more.

A Concert For Peace

JK - Grade 4

Tues. Nov. 5th 2019

9:45 am | 11:30 am

*You may say I'm a dreamer
But I'm not the only one
I hope someday you'll join us
And the world will be as one*

An interactive program that will feature The Mouse and the Light—young listeners will be fascinated as the instruments become characters in the story.

Silk artists and musicians from the HWDSB Programs of the Arts at Glendale (conductor Paul Borsc) and the award-winning BR Junior Xpression Choir (conductor Mary Tabone) will perform alongside the NAO in this multi-sensory adventure!

An action packed 55 minutes in Hamilton's great concert hall with the National Academy Orchestra conducted by internationally renowned conductor Boris Brott.

A BOHEMIAN RHAPSODY

Grade 4 - Grade 8

Wed. Nov. 6th 2019

9:45 am | 11:30 am

A concert in celebration of freedom of expression and the joy that music brings!

The award-winning BR Xpression Vocal Ensemble (Conductor David Tabone) along with musicians and acro dancers from the HWDSB Programs of the Arts at Glendale (conductor Paul Borsc) will join the full National Academy Orchestra, conducted by Boris Brott, in a celebration of music from the Bohemian influence.

From Queen to Dvořák and Smetana, this multi-media concert will have you dancing & singing in your seats!

APPLAUSE & ACCOLADES

TEACHERS & PERFORMERS

The children, ranging in age from not quite six years old to nine years old, were totally enrapt for the entire concert. You had their complete attention from the outset, and the excerpts were fast moving, age appropriate, and seamlessly connected.

Teacher, Grade 4

This is the best music program around for students. My students always learn so much and have a great time.

Teacher, Grade 2

I love playing the Brott Music Education concerts...always filled with inspiration and entertainment. They rock!

STUDENTS

I thought the National Academy Orchestra was terrific! My favourite thing about the concert was when we were all singing together along with the orchestra!

Tabary, Grade 3

I will never forget this amazing experience. I really enjoyed being part of something that is teaching truly invaluable lessons to young children—to be accepting of and open to differing groups of people.

Lacy, Grade 8—performer 2013 concerts
